

ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

K.A.R. 115-25-1a. Quail; open seasons, bag limits, and possession limits.

DESCRIPTION: This new proposed exempt regulation establishes hunting seasons, bag limits, and possession limits for quail. The proposed change different from previous quail seasons includes having an open season statewide on the second Saturday in November beginning in 2006 rather than a split opening.

FEDERAL MANDATE: None.

ECONOMIC IMPACT: It is not anticipated that the amendments would have any substantial economic impact on the department, the general public, or other agencies.

ALTERNATIVES CONSIDERED: None.